MIDDLE EAST

READ THIS PARTNER AGREEMENT (THE "AGREEMENT") CAREFULLY. YOU ("PARTNER") ACCEPT THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT BY (I) INDICATING YOUR ASSENT IN AN ON-LINE TRANSACTION, OR (II) SIGNING IT. IF YOU DO NOT ACCEPT THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, YOU MAY NOT ACT AS A RED HAT PARTNER, PARTICIPATE IN THE RED HAT PARTNER PROGRAM (THE "PROGRAM"), OR USE THE RED HAT PARTNER CENTER PORTAL LOCATED AT www.partner.redhat.com ("PARTNER CENTER").

"General Terms" mean Sections 1 – 18 of this Agreement.

- 1. Purpose. Red Hat has and will design programs for its Partners to promote Red Hat Products, enhance the satisfaction of Red Hat's End Users and augment the expertise and resources of Partners. These programs will be organized into different tracks that will accommodate the needs of different types of partners ("Tracks"). Partner's participation in the Tracks is governed by the terms contained in this Agreement and the applicable Track Appendix(ices). Such Track Appendix(ices) may reference one or more Red Hat Program Guides for the applicable Red Hat geographic region, located at www.redhat.com/partners/programs/programguide.html ("Program Guide"). The Agreement consists of this Partner Agreement, including all Exhibits hereto, the applicable Track Appendix(ices), and (if applicable) any transaction agreements for the sale of Red Hat Products (each, a "Procurement Document"). Certain country unique terms, as identified in the Exhibits hereto, may modify or replace certain sections of the General Terms. "Red Hat Products" mean Red Hat branded and/or JBoss branded software, related documentation, and services that are distributed under the Red Hat Marks (defined below). In particular, Red Hat reserves the right to change Tracks, membership levels and specializations at any time. The General Terms, the applicable terms of the Exhibits, and the applicable Track Appendix(ices) set forth the terms and conditions under which Partner is authorized to participate in the applicable Track(s). Following submission by Partner of an application for participation in one or more Tracks, either electronically through the Partner Center or by other mechanism as may be identified for the applicable Territory (each, an "Application"), Red Hat will review the Application and upon its acceptance by Red Hat, provide electronic notification to Partner of the specific Partner Track(s), membership level(s), and/or specialization(s) (if applicable) to which Partner is appointed (the "Acceptance Notice"). Partner represents and warrants that all information provided to Red Hat in the Application is truthful, complete and accurate. Red Hat may accept or reject any Application and accept any number of Applications made by third parties for the applicable Territory, in Red Hat's sole discretion. Alternatively, the Parties may execute this Agreement in hard copy format, which in Red Hat's sole discretion, may be considered acceptance of Partner's Application.

5. Term. This Agreement begins on the Effective Date and continues until the expiration or termination of all applicable Program Track Appendix(ices) (“Term”). The term of each Partner Track Appendix is independent of the term of any other Partner Track Appendix. “Effective Date” means the later of a) the date indicated on the Acceptance Notice; or b) the date Red Hat executed a hard copy of this Agreement (if applicable).
6. Program Changes. Partner agrees to review the information provided on the Partner Center on a regular basis, including information regarding this Agreement, the applicable Track Appendix(ices), Program Guides, and changes to any of the foregoing. Red Hat may, at its own expense, verify such Records to determine Partner’s compliance with this Agreement. Such verification may take the form of requests for information, documents or records (to which Partner shall respond appropriately), on-site visits (in respect of which Partner hereby grants the requisite access), or both. Partner agrees to act reasonably and to cooperate with Red Hat in relation to such verifications. Any on-site visit will occur during regular business hours at Partner’s offices, and will not interfere unreasonably with Partner’s business activities. For an on-site visit, Red Hat will give Partner at least ten (10) day’s prior written notice of the date of each visit.
8. Trademarks
 - 8.1 As used in this Agreement, the term “Red Hat Marks” means the trademarks owned by Red Hat, Inc. or a Red Hat Affiliate that are set forth in the applicable Track Appendix(ices) and correspond to Partner’s membership level(s). Partner agrees not to use the Red Hat Marks in combination with any other trade name, trademark or service mark, except as stated in this Agreement, without the prior written approval of Red Hat, Inc. Red Hat reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate this Agreement in the event of any misuse by Partner of any Red Hat Mark.
 - 8.3 Partner agrees to adhere to the trade mark usage guidelines found at <http://www.redhat.com/about/corporate/trademark/guidelines> (the “Red Hat Trademark Guidelines”) for the depiction of the Red Hat Marks. Upon Red Hat’s request, Partner will provide Red Hat with representative samples of the use of Red Hat Marks contained within any materials including marketing, advertising and promotional materials. If Red Hat determines that Partner is using the Red Hat Marks improperly, and/or in connection with goods or services not covered under this Agreement, Red Hat will notify Partner, and Partner will remedy the improper use within two (2) business days following receipt of such notice from Red Hat. Use of the Red Hat Marks on good or services other than as covered under this Agreement or in a manner inconsistent with the Red Hat Trademark Guidelines, shall constitute material breach of this Agreement. At the request of Red Hat, Partner will execute any papers or documents reasonably necessary to protect the rights of Red Hat in the Red Hat Marks and will execute and deliver such other documents as may be reasonably requested by Red Hat. The right of Partner to use the Red Hat Marks will cease immediately upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement, and Partner must immediately discontinue use of the Red Hat Marks. If Partner becomes aware of any (possible or actual) infringement of the intellectual property rights of Red Hat it will immediately notify Red Hat in writing. This Section will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement.

An alteration or change to Packaging includes, without limitation: (i) the application or attachment to Packaging of any material (e.g., labels, notes, seals, stamps, manuals, booklets, brochures, software packages, computer programs, compact discs, digital versatile discs, tapes, manuals and toys); and (ii) the marking of Packaging in any way. Any alteration or change to Packaging must be expressly authorized in writing by Red Hat, which authorization may be withheld or granted in Red Hat's sole discretion.
9. Additional Restrictions
- 9.1 Red Hat reserves all rights not expressly granted in this Agreement and Partner will make no utilization of the Red Hat Products for the benefit of any other person or entity, including, but not limited to, acting as a service bureau, or permit any third party to make such utilization, and Partner will have no other rights or licenses with respect to the Red Hat Products not expressly granted herein (including rights under any trademarks, copyrights, patents, or other intellectual property of Red Hat).

Partner will indemnify and hold harmless Red Hat from and in relation to any and all liability, loss, costs, damages or expense, including reasonable attorney's, solicitor's or legal fees and costs, resulting from or arising out of Partner's performance or non-performance under this Agreement.

12. Publicity and Confidentiality

12.1 Publicity. Partner will keep confidential and will not disclose, market or advertise to third parties the terms of this Agreement (including the fees paid hereunder) without the prior written consent of Red Hat. Red Hat will be permitted to reference its relationship with Partner, including during Red Hat's earnings calls, discussions with analysts, meetings with the press, customer briefings, general marketing activities, and in regulatory filings.

12.2 Confidential Information. The parties agree that Confidential Information provided under this Agreement will be held and maintained in confidence and each Party will use at least the same degree of care to protect such Confidential Information that it utilizes to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care. Confidential Information may be disclosed only to Affiliates, employees, agents and contractors with a need to know, and to its auditors and legal counsel, provided in each case they are under a written obligation to keep such information confidential using standards of confidentiality not less restrictive than those required by this Agreement. Both Parties agree that obligations of confidentiality will exist for a period of two (2) years following initial disclosure of the particular Confidential Information.

13. Termination

13.1 Termination by Red Hat or Partner. Red Hat or Partner may (without prejudice to any other right or remedy) terminate this Agreement or any Track Appendix (and Partner's participation in such Track) (a) for any reason at any time upon thirty (30) days prior notice in writing to the other Party; or (b) at any time upon notice in writing to the other Party if the other Party is in material breach of any obligation thereunder and (in the case of a remediable breach) fails to remedy the breach within fifteen (15) days of being requested in writing to do so unless a shorter cure period is otherwise stipulated under this Agreement or in the applicable Track Appendix(ices), provided, however, that no such cure period will be required for a breach of Sections 8 or 12 hereof or any other breach that cannot be reasonably cured. Termination of this Agreement shall not affect any pre-existing agreements between the Parties, nor any End User Enterprise Agreement. "Enterprise Agreement" shall be as defined in the applicable Track Appendix(ices).

13.2 Effect of Agreement Termination or Expiration. Termination or expiration of this Agreement for any reason will immediately terminate Partner's participation in the Program, including all applicable Tracks and eligibility to the Program benefits. Enterprise Agreements with End Users for any Red Hat Products distributed by Partner prior to termination or expiration will survive in accordance with their terms, provided that the End Users continue to comply with the applicable Enterprise Agreement. Termination of this Agreement will not operate to terminate any special bid or other Procurement Document under this Agreement and the terms and conditions of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect to the extent necessary to give effect to any special bid or other Procurement Document in effect at the time of termination of this Agreement and until such time as the special bid or other Procurement Document expires.

13.3 No Compensation. In the event of a termination or expiration of this Agreement, or any suspension of Partner's distribution rights pursuant to Section 2 of the Reseller Track Appendix, Red Hat will have no obligation to Partner (except as Red Hat otherwise may be liable to Partner for Red Hat's material breach of this Agreement), or to any employee of Partner, for compensation or for damages of any kind, whether on account of the loss by Partner or such employee of present or prospective sales, investments, compensation or goodwill. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Partner, for itself and on behalf of each of its employees, hereby waives any rights which may be granted to it under the laws and regulations of any jurisdiction or otherwise which are not granted to it or them by this Agreement. Partner hereby indemnifies and holds Red Hat harmless from and against any and all claims, costs, damages and liabilities whatsoever asserted by any employee, agent or representative of Partner under any applicable cancellation, termination, labor, social security, payments under national insurance, or other laws or regulations.

- 15.3.5 Partner will not export any Red Hat Product to a third party or to an Affiliate that is located in a country that is engaged in boycotting activities not sanctioned by the U.S. and will not make any sale that is prohibited under the Anti-boycotting Act (50 USCA 2407, Part 760).
- 15.3.6 To the extent required by law or to protect the rights of Red Hat, Partner will register this Agreement, at its expense, with any governmental authority requiring such registration, or with which registration is advisable, provided that Red Hat will have the right to review and approve any application for registration prior to its submission to any governmental authority. At Red Hat’s option, Red Hat may obtain such registration in its own name. At Red Hat’s request, Partner will withdraw any application or registration of this Agreement that it has filed.
- 15.4 No Assignment. This Agreement is only assignable by Partner with Red Hat’s prior written consent. Any assignment made by Partner without Red Hat’s prior written consent will be wholly void and invalid, assignee will acquire no rights whatsoever, and Red Hat will not recognize, nor will Red Hat be required to recognize, the assignment. Red Hat may assign any or all of its rights and delegate or novate any or all its obligations hereunder without the prior approval of Partner. At the request of Red Hat, Partner will execute any papers or documents reasonably necessary to give effect to such assignment or novation.
- 15.5 Independent Contractor. Partner is an independent contractor for all purposes, without express or implied authority to bind Red Hat. Neither Partner nor its employees, agents or subcontractors are entitled to any employee benefits of Red Hat. Partner will be responsible for all costs and expenses incident to performing its business. Nothing in this Agreement shall (except as expressly provided) be deemed to constitute a partnership, or create a relationship of principal and agent between the Parties for any purpose.
- 15.6 Force Majeure. Neither Party will be liable for nonperformance or delays caused by acts of God, wars, riots, strikes, fires, floods, earthquakes, government restrictions, terrorist acts or other causes beyond its reasonable control. In the event of the occurrence of any of the foregoing, the date of performance will be deferred for a period of time equal to the time lost by reason of the delay. The affected Party will notify the other in writing of such events or circumstances promptly upon their occurrence
- 16. Miscellaneous. a) All headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for identification and convenience, and will not be deemed part of this Agreement for purposes of interpretation. b) If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, but would be valid and enforceable if appropriately modified, then such provision will apply with the modification necessary to make it valid and enforceable. If such provision cannot be so modified, the parties agree that such invalidity will not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of the Agreement. c) The delay or failure of either Party to exercise any rights hereunder will not constitute or be deemed a waiver or forfeiture of such rights. No waiver will be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of the Party against whom such waiver or forfeiture is sought to be enforced. d) This Agreement will constitute the exclusive terms and conditions with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement, notwithstanding any different or additional terms that may be contained in the form of purchase order or other document used by Partner, including subsequent to the date of this Agreement. This Agreement contains the final, complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties with respect to the transactions contemplated herein and all prior written agreements and all prior and contemporaneous oral agreements with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement are merged herein. In the event of a conflict between this Partner Agreement and the applicable Track Appendix(ices), Program Guide(s) or any other Program literature, the terms of this Partner Agreement will prevail. e) Except as otherwise provided in Section 6, this Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified except by written instrument signed by authorized signatories of the parties hereto, which instrument makes specific reference to this Agreement. g) This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original and all of which will constitute one and the same instrument. The parties may exchange signature pages by facsimile and such signatures will be effective to bind the parties. h) The Parties acknowledge that they have each reviewed and participated in settling the terms of this Agreement. Furthermore, the parties agree that any rule of construction to the effect that any ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting Party will not be employed in the interpretation or construction of this Agreement. i) This Agreement has been prepared, negotiated and signed in English, and English is the controlling language of this Agreement.

2.4.3 Sections 11.2, 11.3, 13.3, and 16 (b) and (d) of the General Terms shall be replaced in their entirety with the following:

11.2 Limitation of Liability

- i. Nothing in this Agreement shall operate so as to exclude or limit the liability of any Party to any of the other Parties for death or personal injury arising out of negligence, or for any other liability which cannot be excluded or limited by law.
- ii. Subject to subsections 11.2 (i) and 11.2 (v), the total aggregate liability of Red Hat to Partner under or in relation to this Agreement, including (but not limited to) liability for breach of contract, misrepresentation (whether tortious or statutory), tort (including but not limited to negligence), and breach of statutory duty, shall not exceed seventy five thousand pounds sterling (£75,000).
- iii. The limitations of liability set out in this Section 11.2 shall not apply in respect of any liability which may arise for bodily injury (including death) and physical damage to Partner's tangible property resulting from the negligence of Red Hat.
- iv. Red Hat shall not be liable to the Partner or its Affiliates for any of the following types of loss or damage arising under or in relation to this Agreement:
 - any loss of profits, business, contracts, anticipated savings, goodwill, or revenue, any wasted expenditure, or any loss or corruption of data (regardless of whether any of these types of loss or damage are direct, indirect or consequential); or
 - any indirect or consequential loss or damage whatsoever, even if that Party was aware of the possibility that such loss or damage might be incurred by the other.
- v. In no event will either Party or its Affiliates be liable to the other Party or its Affiliates for any claim based upon a third party claim.
- vi. This Section 11.2 shall survive and shall not be rendered ineffective by the termination or expiry of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

- 11.3 Third Party Rights. A person who is not a party to this Agreement may not enforce any of its provisions under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
- 13.3 No Compensation. Neither Red Hat nor any reseller of Red Hat who may be engaged by Red Hat to carry out activities which are similar to the activities to be carried out by the Partner under this Agreement following the termination or expiry of this Agreement or any suspension by Red Hat of Partner's rights pursuant to Section 2 of the Reseller Track Appendix (a "Replacement Partner") shall have any liability for any current or former employees, independent contractors and agents of the Partner engaged in any way in the activities contemplated under this Agreement ("Partner Staff") and Partner shall indemnify Red Hat against any and all losses, costs, awards, liabilities and expenses suffered or incurred by Red Hat or any Replacement Partner as a result of any claim or demand made or brought against Red Hat or any Replacement Partner by or on behalf of any member or former member of the Partner Staff on the grounds that his/her employment and/or liabilities in connection with his/her employment, its termination or cessation howsoever arising (including as a result of its termination by Red Hat or any Replacement Partner) have or should have transferred from the Partner to Red Hat or any Replacement Partner pursuant to the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 1996 or any equivalent legislation in any territory other than the United Kingdom or otherwise on the commencement of this Agreement, during its continuance or on its termination or expiry.
- 16. (b) If any clause, or part of a clause, of this Agreement, is found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the legality, validity or enforceability of the remainder of the clause or paragraph which contains the relevant provision shall not be affected, unless otherwise stipulated under applicable law. If the remainder of the provision is not affected, the parties shall use all reasonable endeavours to agree within a reasonable time upon any lawful and reasonable variations to the Agreement which may be necessary in order to achieve, to the greatest extent possible, the same effect as would have been achieved by the clause, or the part of the clause, in question.
- d) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties in relation to its subject matter, and replaces and extinguishes all prior agreements, draft agreements, arrangements, undertakings, or collateral contracts of any nature made by the Parties, whether oral or written, in relation to such subject matter. Reseller Track Appendix

- 1. Authorization. The Partner Agreement, including this Reseller Track Appendix, and the applicable Red Hat Program Guide set forth the terms and conditions under which Partner is authorized on a non-exclusive basis to (a) participate in the reseller Track and/or (b) to acquire and resell Red Hat Products. Upon acceptance by Red Hat into the reseller Track, Red Hat grants Partner a non-exclusive authorization to demonstrate, market, promote and resell the Red Hat Products during the Term (defined below) to End Users (defined below) in the Territory (defined below). Partner shall participate in the reseller Track at the membership level for which Red Hat has approved Partner, as indicated in the Acceptance Notice. Partner will be permitted to sell in multiple Territories only upon mutual written agreement of the parties. Partner's continued authorization is based on its compliance with this Reseller Track Appendix, the Agreement and the applicable Program Guide, and Partner's continued compliance with the Program requirements. This authorization is personal to the legal entity or branch office indicated by Partner in the Application or as otherwise accepted by Red Hat in writing. Partner has no right to delegate its activity hereunder to another reseller, or to appoint sub-resellers or agents for the Red Hat Products without Red Hat's express written consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Partner understands and agrees that Red Hat grants Partner authorization to resell the JBoss branded products under the JBoss Reseller/JBoss System Integrator specialization only to the extent that Partner meets the specific requirements for such specialization as provided in the applicable Program Guide. "Territory" means the geographic territory in which Partner is permitted to sell as defined in the Acceptance Notice. "End User" means a purchaser who has acquired Red Hat Products for its own personal or internal use and without the right to resell, remarket or otherwise distribute Red Hat Products. Notwithstanding the authorization set out in this Appendix, Red Hat shall have no liability for any acts and omissions of any of its Business Partners,
- 2. Restriction of Territory. If at any time Red Hat reasonably determines that (i) the laws of any country are or become insufficient to protect Red Hat's rights in the Red Hat Products; or (ii) applicable law prohibits Red Hat from distributing the Red Hat Products into a particular country, or (iii) if Red Hat becomes aware of any potential intellectual property claim that may be made in respect of the Red Hat Products in such country, Red Hat reserves the right to suspend Partner's right to distribute the Red Hat Products in such country upon thirty (30) days prior written notice. Partner's rights with respect to such country will only be reinstated upon written notification from Red Hat.
- 3. Fulfillment. This Reseller Track Appendix authorizes Partner to acquire eligible Red Hat Products from a Red Hat-authorized distributor, reseller or OEM (each, a "Business Partner") as specified in the applicable Program Guide. Partner will only be permitted to purchase Red Hat Products directly from Red Hat if Partner receives Red Hat's prior written consent to do so. If Partner acquires Red Hat Products from a Business Partner, Partner will pay the Business Partner for the Red Hat Products and all payment, credit, shipping and other direct purchase terms shall be between Partner and the Business Partner. If Partner acquires Red Hat Products from Red Hat, Partner will pay Red Hat for the Red Hat Products under the terms provided in Section 4, below. Upon receipt of a purchase order from either Partner or Business Partner for Red Hat Products, Red Hat will provide access to a downloadable version of the Red Hat Products to either the Business Partner, Partner, or End User, as directed by the Business Partner or Partner in writing. For any instance where Red Hat has to ship Red Hat Products with physical media directly to Partner, Red Hat will itself or will direct its authorized agent to create and ship the physical media to Partner. Shipment is F.O.B. point of shipment by the method Red Hat deems most advantageous. Transportation and insurance charges, expenses and costs will be invoiced to Partner and are not included in any pricing provided. Risk of loss or damage to the Red Hat Products will automatically pass to Partner when the Red Hat Products are placed with the carrier for shipment to Partner. Red Hat Products are sold without return privileges, unless consented to in writing by Red Hat in its sole discretion.
- 4. Billing, Payment and Taxes. This Section applies to all Partners, except as otherwise set forth in Exhibit 2 - Country Unique Terms for Partners in certain countries. If Partner acquires Red Hat Products from Red Hat, Red Hat will invoice Partner upon Red Hat's receipt of a purchase order for any amounts due to Red Hat; provided, however, that the terms of such purchase order will not amend, supplement or modify the terms of the Agreement, this Reseller Track Appendix or be binding on Red Hat. Partner must pay all sums due to Red Hat net thirty (30) days from the date of invoice, without regard for when, and whether, Partner collects payment from End User. All amounts owed under the Agreement, this Reseller Track Appendix, or the applicable Program Guide are to be paid in the applicable currency and to the account as set forth in Exhibit 1 - Payment Instructions that corresponds to the country in which the particular Partner is incorporated or maintains its principal place of business. Partner will reimburse Red Hat for all costs and expenses incurred by Red Hat in connection with the collection of overdue amounts, including without limitation reasonable attorneys', solicitor's, or legal fees. All amounts payable shall be exclusive of any Taxes. Partner will pay to Red Hat, in addition to any amounts due to Red Hat for Red Hat Products, an amount equal to any Taxes arising from or relating to this Agreement, including without limitation sales, service, use or value-added taxes, which are paid or are payable by Red Hat or present Red Hat with a valid tax exemption certificate. "Taxes" means any form of taxation, levy, duty, charge, contribution or impost of whatever nature and by whatever authority imposed (including without limitation any fine, penalty, surcharge or interest), exclusive of any taxes based on the net income of Red Hat. In the event of a cross-border transaction, should Partner be required under any applicable law or regulation, domestic or foreign, to withhold or deduct any portion of the payments due to Red Hat, then the sum payable to Red Hat will be increased by the amount necessary to yield to Red Hat an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no withholdings or deductions been made. The parties will work together in good faith to minimize adverse tax consequences to Red Hat created by cross-border transactions.

5. End User Enterprise Agreements. Partner will require each End User to sign or otherwise assent (in a manner acceptable to Red Hat) to the applicable agreement set forth at www.redhat.com/licenses, as updated by Red Hat from time to time ("Enterprise Agreement"), as a condition to the distribution of the Red Hat Products to such End User. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Partner's satisfaction of this obligation may be achieved by, but is not limited to, inclusion of a URL link to the Enterprise Agreement in Partner's agreement or other purchase documentation with End User, or in the alternative by requiring End User to execute a hard copy of the Enterprise Agreement. Partner will not amend or grant any waiver under the Enterprise Agreement without Red Hat's prior written consent. If Partner becomes aware of any violation of an Enterprise Agreement, Partner will notify Red Hat immediately and will reasonably assist Red Hat in its efforts to enforce the terms of the Enterprise Agreement.
6. Marketing and Distribution. Subject to the rights and restrictions set forth in this Agreement, Partner will use reasonable efforts to (i) actively market, promote and distribute the Red Hat Products; (ii) make periodic and regular demonstrations showcasing the features of the Red Hat Products; (iii) establish and maintain appropriate marketing and distribution facilities and personnel to create and meet the demand for Red Hat Products and related support among End Users; (iv) represent the Red Hat Products accurately and fairly and at all times avoid deceptive, misleading or unethical business practices; and (v) carry out the promotional and other tasks set forth in the applicable Program Guide. Partner will make no claim, representation, warranty, or guarantee to End Users or third parties relating to the performance or functionality of the Red Hat Products other than as expressly set forth by Red Hat in its published manuals, training materials, software descriptions and specifications, brochures, technical manuals, license agreements, supporting materials, and other printed information. Partner shall determine its own resale prices. Partner agrees that it will promptly report any effort by Red Hat personnel to interfere with its pricing policies directly to a Red Hat officer or manager. Partner agrees to confer periodically with Red Hat, at Red Hat's request, on matters relating to market conditions, sales forecasting, product planning and promotional marketing strategies. Partner will conduct business in its own name and in such a manner that will be reasonably expected to reflect favorably at all times on the Red Hat Products and the good name, goodwill and reputation of Red Hat.
7. Internal Use of Red Hat Products. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, this Reseller Track Appendix and the applicable Program Guide, Red Hat grants to Partner, and Partner accepts, the following rights:
 - 7.1 A non-exclusive, non-transferable right during the Reseller Track Term to use the Red Hat Products subject to, and under the applicable terms of, the standard Red Hat Enterprise Agreement for sales, marketing, sales enablement training of Partner's personnel and demonstration of the functions and features of the Red Hat Products to End Users and prospective End Users at no cost. Any violation of the Enterprise Agreement will be deemed a material breach of this Agreement. Red Hat is under no obligation to provide any technical support to Partner for such internal use of Red Hat Products, except as may be provided in the applicable Program Guide.
 - 7.2 A non-exclusive, non-transferable right during the Reseller Track Term to reproduce or copy the Promotional Materials as reasonably necessary for Partner to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that such right does not include the right to copy any third-party materials included in the Promotional Materials. "Promotional Materials" means any marketing collateral associated with the Red Hat Products that is provided by Red Hat to Partner for distribution to prospective End Users, including any Red Hat-authorized translations of those materials. All Promotional Materials and modified or amended versions of such Promotional Materials will remain or become the property of Red Hat. At the request of Red Hat, Partner will execute any papers or documents reasonably necessary to protect the rights of Red Hat in the Promotional Materials and will execute and deliver such other documents as may be reasonably requested by Red Hat. Partner has no rights to modify the Promotional Materials or documentation.
8. Red Hat Marks. The Red Hat Marks that Red Hat is authorized to use under this Reseller Track Appendix, if any, are identified in the applicable Program Guide and are available electronically on the Partner Center or directly from Red Hat.
9. Reseller Track Term. This Reseller Track Appendix and the authorization granted hereunder begin on the Effective Date and continue for one (1) year (the "Reseller Track Term"). This Reseller Track Appendix shall automatically renew upon the anniversary of the Effective Date, and shall continue in full force and effect for successive one (1) year periods unless and until terminated by either party giving to the other written notice of termination at least thirty (30) days before the anniversary date. "Effective Date" means either the date indicated on the Acceptance Notice or the date that Red Hat executed either a hard copy of the Agreement referencing this Reseller Track Appendix or a hard copy of this Reseller Track Appendix itself.

10. Termination of Reseller Track Appendix by Red Hat or Partner. Red Hat or Partner may (without prejudice to any other right or remedy) terminate this Reseller Track Appendix pursuant to Section 13.1 of the Agreement. Termination of this Reseller Track Appendix shall not affect any pre-existing agreements between the Parties, nor any End User Enterprise Agreement. Termination of this Reseller Track Appendix for any reason will immediately terminate Partner's participation in the Reseller Track, including all eligibility for Reseller Track benefits. Unless otherwise authorized under a separate Track Appendix, upon such termination, Partner will immediately (i) cease referring to itself as a Red Hat Business Partner, and using that title in any communication and advertising; (ii) cease all promotion, demonstration, sale and distribution of the Red Hat Products; (iii) cease all use of the Red Hat Marks, (iv) return or destroy, at Red Hat's option, all printed materials containing such Red Hat Marks, including all documentation and Promotional Materials. Partner will remit all fees due to Red Hat under this Reseller Track Appendix within fifteen (15) days of such termination; provided, however, that Partner will be entitled to sell any of its inventory of Red Hat Products for which Red Hat has been fully paid and that are required to fulfill any unperformed contracts of Partner outstanding at the date of termination. All rights and obligations of the Parties under this Reseller Track Appendix will terminate immediately, except that Partner payment obligations under this Reseller Track Appendix will survive such termination. Termination of this Reseller Track Appendix will not operate to terminate the Agreement or any special bid or other Procurement Document under the Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Agreement and this Reseller Track Appendix will continue in full force and effect to the extent necessary to give effect to any special bid or other Procurement Document in effect at the time of termination of this Reseller Track Appendix and until such time as the special bid or other Procurement Document expires.
