SUCCESS SUMMARY	UMN engaged Red Hat Academy to add Red Hat Certified System Administrator (RHCSA®) curriculum to its IT system administration course, a mandatory course that helps its computer engineering students enrich their Red Hat Enterprise Linux® skills.	North Metropolitan TAFE sought to add comprehensive training and industry certification paths on open source systems to its curriculum. Through its partnership with Red Hat Academy, the institution can now help students gain extensive knowledge and performance-based skills to succeed in IT and other industries.	Iwasaki Gakuen wanted to introduce training on private cloud computing as its next educational program. Working with Red Hat Academy due to its practical approach and easily constructed training environment, it quickly built an environment to offer students Red Hat OpenStack Admin I curriculum.
